

Dear Ms. Dickason,

8/31/05

I write you in regards to a situation I am enduring with them at F.C.T Mexican Segregation "Hole". The legal law library in the hole has a room about 12x12 with one book shelf of old outdated miss books. This room has a metal table in the center. This room does not have law books, shop books, Supreme Court Cases, Program statements etc. All requested material has to be brought from the legal law library in Population. We are given 5-7 days to review the requested material but there's over 100 inmates in Segregation and by the time you make it to the library which takes 7-10 days your requested material is gone. This is clearly a violation of Due Process, and access to the courts. Because I have a pending case, No 02-4056 against my criminal sentence and a Medical Case No 04-335. After complaining to staff here I have been a victim of further retaliation, Administrative Remedies have gone unanswered. I have copies of any available papers that can be forwarded at your request to help you if needed. I thank you for your time and hope you can help me in this matter. Thank you!

Sincerely,
